Caleb received his undergraduate degree from the University of Texas at Arlington in 2008 and his law degree from the University of Tulsa College of Law in 2020. While in law school he was accepted to the Tulsa Law Review's editorial board and was a member of the school's mock trial team. Prior to law school, Caleb served as the youth pastor at a local church for nine years. During that time, he also obtained a master's degree from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. After graduating from law school in 2020, he began his legal career as a prosecutor at the Tarrant County Criminal District Attorney's Office. He oversaw hundreds of misdemeanor and felony cases through intake, grand jury, plea negotiations, and was able to try several cases to jury verdict. Caleb joined Cantey Hanger's litigation section in 2023.
